“ Dear Brown Family-- I just want to say thank you for the pleasure of meeting you and getting a glimpse into the life of Polly yesterday. It was a privilege to be a part of your day as you said goodbye to an honorable lady who was largely responsible for raising up and supporting the public servants that her sons have become and the productive members of society that many of the others in the family are. And also let me say thanks for the generous way you all related with me as an outsider. I pray God blesses you greatly as you go through this time of grief. In Christ's Service-- Les Miller
