“ I first met her at her work. We worked together for 3 years. I had know Phil from previous life encounters. Becky and I clicked instantly. She was a bright light in this dim world and was so caring and giving. She shared stories of her kids and grandkids and glowed speaking of them. We texted and messaged often even when we stopped working together. The world was a better place with her in it. I will never forget our time together and I look forward to when we see each other again. Fly high my sweet friend! I was blessed to call you my friend! ❤️
