“ I remember well Rick's star-talent in track. Trained with weights on his ankles and then flew through the air when competing. He flew! I can imagine he still is. Blessings and peace to all of his family.

I met Rick thru my husband in th 1980's. Wow, could he ever make me laugh! One of my fondest memories of Rick as his sense of humor. While out of touch for a number of years, I always considered him a dear friend. My deepest sympathies to his wife Diane, step children, his many friends and to his lovely mother Mary Lou and his brother Kim. He will remain in my heart forever and I am reminded that he now forever out of pain that most can only try to omprehend. He will by missed by many I'm sure. Heaven has gained yet another warrior and angel. Lovingly, Carol Stowell. 😔😭😭❤️
