“ Rick and Donna, so very sorry to learn of the passing of your father and husband. I remember Ron has being such a supportive guy when Rick was a student at Pleasant Valley and was always so friendly--even years after I was Rick's teacher. Thinking of you both in a new world without him. He was a salt of the earth kind of guy.

“ My condolences to Donna and Rick and their families. I worked with Ron at Winfield Consumer Products for many years and always enjoyed talking to him. I remember that he liked to bake and I was the recipient of chocolate cake and apple pie many times. He always had a kind word. Rest in peace Ron, you've earned it.
