“ I just saw about Rudy's passing & it causes me great sadness. The DeLaTorre family has always been a great family to know. Rudy was a good & kind person and even though it has been awhile since I saw him, he would cross my mind once in awhile & that would bring a smile. Barbara Bringle Workman Hudson - Wichita

“ Our sincere condolences to the family of Rudy. He and I (Laurel) drove Care Car for NMRMC several years and had many happy memories; then he went to work for Tri-Valley Developmental Services to which I followed a little later along with my husband. Rudy would always keep in touch with us periodically after leaving the workplace. We will miss his calls but know that he is in God's hands. Laurel & Larry McVey

“ I have known and worked with Rudy for years, never a dull moment with my ole' friend. He was full of orneriness in the best way. We shared many jokes along the years, most not suitable for this page! Lol
Love you my friend and rest with the angels in peace. ♡♡
