

Scott Kevin Wrestler

August 5, 1960 - September 2, 2025

Scott Kevin Wrestler, 65, of Chanute passed away unexpectedly, Tuesday, September 2nd at his home.

Scott was born August 5, 1960 in Chanute. He was the son of Glenn and Alta (Felkins) Wrestler Barnett, the fifth of six children.

Scott attended Chanute High School before going to work at Wrestler Boats and Campers. Later in life, he was employed by Young's Welding.

Scott loved music and enjoyed watching old movies. In earlier years, he loved riding his Harley motorcycle, and enjoyed his time helping coach the Chanute Wrestling Club.

Scott had a soft spot for animals and especially loved his dog, Odie, spoiling him. He would shop and buy food that Odie liked. He enjoyed visiting with people and had a sense of humor. Normally his comments would result in his sister stating "you can't say that!"

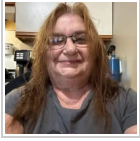

Scott is survived by two sons, Tim Wrestler and Nick Wrestler; sisters Marsha (Ken) Aikins Sand Springs, Ok.; Cindy (Terry) King, Chanute, Ks.; Glennis (Lonnie) Wilson, Chanute, Ks.; brothers Glenn, Jr. (Debbie) Wrestler, Chanute, Ks.; Tony (Dawn) Wrestler, Hahira, Georgia; and several grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a son, Kirk Wrestler.

Contributions can be made to Castaways Animal Shelter & Sanctuary or Tri-Valley Developmental Services and can be left with Countryside Funeral Home.

Burial will be at a later date. Arrangements have been entrusted to Countryside Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

“ So sorry for the family's loss. Scott will be missed by all who knew him and his character. Always happy always made people laugh you will be missed for sure Scott R.I.P

Dawna Parker - October 17, 2025 at 03:23 PM

“ So sorry to learn of Scott's passing. He was a good guy always kind and caring. My prayers go out to the family.
Sandy Redburn Curtis

Sandy Curtis - September 06, 2025 at 06:29 PM

“ Very sad to hear about this . My condolences to all the family members. Have lots of good memories of him my first year here in Chanute. Always made me feel welcomed to the community 🎈
Rest in Peace Scott Cindy Gard

Cindy Gard - September 05, 2025 at 11:58 AM