“ We first moved into the neighborhood on South Ashby in 1971 and was warned not to let our kids play with the other kids in the "hood". There were around 20 at any given day, and Steve was one of them. He was upset at me one day about a decision I had made, He called me an old lady, yelled at me from the street to go inside and take my Geritol. The name shortened to " Geri", his favorite nickname for me, I in turn called him " Stephenie". It didn't matter where we were at, he would yell, well there is "old Geri". I learned to love all of those kids( from the "hood"), Steve being one of them. We shall miss you "Stephenie". Rest well with the angels!
