

SunTok McGinnis

August 23, 1930 - May 16, 2018

SunTok McGinnis, 87, of Chanute, KS, passed away on May 16, 2018. She was born in South Korea and made her home in Chanute when she met and married Edward S. McGinnis. They were married on February 25, 1964 and he preceded her in death in 1996.

After giving up all of her family in South Korea and moving to the United States, SunTok put her all into being the best wife, mom, and grandma. She was the most generous to all who knew her, sometimes doing without so others could be provided for. She was a very hard worker, and enjoyed her job in housekeeping at Neosho Memorial Regional Medical Center for over 20 years. SunTok made sure her family knew just how much they were loved by her, and will be missed by all who knew and loved her.

SunTok is survived by:

Children:

Sandra Nagengast and husband Daniel of Chanute, KS

Johnny McGinnis of Ft. Smith, AR

15 Grandchildren

Numerous Great-Grandchildren

“ I have the kindest memories of Mrs. McGinnis as a child. When we were children and my Mom would come and pick up the kids for school. My thoughts and prayers go out to Sandy and Johnny and the family. May Gods Peace and comfort be with you all!

“ I will never forget our Sunday mornings growing up. Mom making a huge breakfast and dad playing records Eddie Arnold Ray price all the oldies
Mom took care of our family, always making sure dinner was on the table by five after working all day, never had a lived in house look momma would do it all everyday cooking ,dishes , cleaning, never complained.
And her giving...she gave so much.
I don't think she had one person not love her..
Even after she went to the home everyone loved her and she'd try to help the other residents by singing and doing her little dances.
On days she didn't remember me she'd just sing to me
Nothing is ever going to come close to taking her place
R.I.P. momma love you
