June 7, 1948 - December 8, 2024

Thomas retired from Beech Aircraft in Wichita after 30 years of service as a Brake Operator. He then went to work as a car salesman, where he found his most favorite job he ever had at Quality Chevrolet. It was there he was given the nickname Sumo, which he kind of liked. He was a fan of classic cars, race cars, and enjoyed racing at the 81 Speedway. Even when he wasn't racing himself, he enjoyed going to watch.
