

Vicki Kay Eisele

December 21, 1945 - December 12, 2008

Vicki Kay Eisele, 62, a resident of rural Fredonia, passed away Friday, December 12, 2008, at Hillcrest Medical Center in Tulsa, OK. Vicki was born on December 21, 1945 in California, the daughter of Victor Riley and Hallie Hazel (Dickens) Green.

On December 13, 1963 Vicki married Norman Eisele in Fredonia. Vicki passed away the day before their 45th wedding anniversary.

Vicki went to cosmetology school in Independence. She had worked for Sears, the Sale Barn and 10 years as a health service clerk for the Fredonia School System.

Vicki was a member of the First Christian Church in Fredonia, where she was involved with the C. W.F., Tuesday Study Club, Christian Thrift Shop, and the Red Hat Society. Vicki was very out-going; she loved to go on home and garden tours, spending many hours looking at homes. She loved to square dance, watch animals and birds. In the evenings she enjoyed looking at the stars, as long as it didn't interfere with her favorite television shows.

Survivors including her husband are:

One Son:

Geo. Sterling Eisele, Sycamore, KS

One Aunt:

Effie Alexander, Neodesha, KS

One grandchild and two step grandchildren

Several Cousins

Vicki was preceded in death by her parents.

Visitation will be Monday December 15, 2008 from 2-7 P.M. Funeral Services will be held Tuesday December 16, 2008 at 10:00 am at Countryside Funeral Home, with Carl Thornton officiating.
