My heart goes out to my mother Berdeen Lawrence, Bill's constant companion for the last few years. I had just called Bill on Sunday to wish him Happy Father's Day. He had become much more than just a family friend for our family. He had truly become a respected and loved member of it. He will be loved and missed. My heart had a special place for him. Thank you for the hugs !

I cleaned Bill's house. We always had good visits when I went there. He always made me take a break and eat cheese and crackers, even though it was only a 3 hour job. He also kept Werthers candy in the cupboard, and I was to have as many of those as I wanted. The last time I cleaned for him, we talked alot about spiritual things. He informed me that he was not afraid to die, and that he was ready. That was the 1st Monday of this month. Bill had a very special place in my heart. I will miss him greatly!
