“ When I was young I was good friends with her daughter Sharie. I would stop and visit her mom was a very kind gracious person. Always welcome in her home and always full of smiles and welcome words. I always wondered what happened to the family and happened on this post. I had moved away from Chanute and lost touch with the family. Both her and Sharie were great people. I pray that she is in Heaven enjoying the saints of God. She left a great memory in my heart! I'll never forget the question she asked me one time about a relationship! Great lady!
