“ The Thatchers purchased three trees, for Zach and his two kids, Noah and Zylar. May they all grow together towards the sunshine, sway in the breeze, and be a refuge for the birds. Zach, you will be missed by our family!

“ Zach you were one in a million always had fun hanging out with you and working with you we always gave each other a crap all the time we had jokes on top of jokes loved telling each other to watch a movie that it's really good just to see if they would watch it and to see your face coming back the next day and I sure could tell that you watched it and had some comments for me lol you Andy and Juanita always back there making the best out of our work days never a dull moment then Shawna... Had some good jokes as well and you was always there for your friends helping in everything they would need shoulder to cry on an ear to listen and advice to give I just only wish I could have done the same for you but you would always think you would burden someone if you aloud your thoughts and feelings out I did have a few talks with you to help you through the situation with the kiddos when you were sad that you couldn't see them or get there to visit them you were loved by many and I will forever miss you and that beautiful smile and laugh you always had now you can be with your past loved ones and your past friends I'm sure Juanita and Andy will love to see you again until we meet you again love ya buddy
